4. Course Consistency: Briefly describe how uniformly or how diversely this course is taught across sections. Explain what steps have been taken to ensure that all sections meet the course goals and learning objectives. (e.g. Explain how much leeway instructors have in their assignments or syllabi.)

Curriculum: All UNIV 3820 instructors are required to structure their courses around the office-established learning objectives as approved by the University Senate. Specific learning outcomes and additional assignments are tailored by the instructor to meet the leadership development needs of the specific learning community's academic focus as well as the students in the class section.

Training: All instructors must complete at least five hours of training prior to teaching, including a new instructor orientation. In this academic year, professional development provided included a full-day annual curricular conference, more than thirty hour-long seminars, and recorded webinars. Teaching and learning resources provided included a comprehensive instructor manual and a fully developed customizable course HuskyCT site.

Oversight: Each UNIV 3820 course must be fully vetted and approved by the First Year Programs and Learning Communities Faculty Courses and Curriculum Oversight Board. And each instructor must apply and be approved to teach by the First Year Programs and Learning Communities Faculty Courses and Curriculum Oversight Board. Syllabi are collected annually. SET evaluations are reviewed so that any instructor with an average score of three or below can be provided with personalized remediation and support. All learning communities' courses are additionally under the oversight of a faculty director with expertise in the field of inquiry.

5. Course Subtitles: Please attach a list of all subsections of the course that were offered in the current academic year.
